Status: Part Time

Reports to: Wellness Director / Program Director

Department: Enrichment Programs

Revision Date: 7/2018

POSITION SUMMARY:

The tumbling instructor is responsible for working with children, teens and/or adults to promote the enjoyment of tumbling and movement by providing high-quality instruction and guidance. The tumbling instructor is responsible for teaching and choreographing fun, safe classes that create a positive, inclusive and supportive learning environment. Assists in membership development and retention by effectively building community within the class.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS:

1. Leads energizing, fun, safe, and educational tumbling classes, as directed by the supervisor, to accomplish the YMCA mission and goals. Provides appropriate supervision at all times.
2. Under the guidance of the supervisor, creates class lesson plans specific to the class being taught that allow participants to progress their skills in accordance with their ages and abilities, modifying as needed to meet the needs of participants.
3. Builds effective, authentic relationships with participants and parents, helping them connect with each other and the YMCA. Models welcoming, connecting, motivating and affirming behaviors. Treats participants fairly and equally, allowing them to feel good and confident about themselves and their progress.
4. Celebrates achievement of program participants related to program or personal goals, mastering specific skills or improving overall health and well-being. Communicates progress with parents/guardians as appropriate.
5. Assists supervisor in planning, developing and choreographing recitals as requested.
6. Keeps accurate class attendance records, aiming for continual retention and growth. Obtain roster of paid participants at the beginning of session and inform supervisor of any discrepancies.
7. Obtains and maintains required certifications, completes mandatory staff training and participates in required staff meetings. Participates in special events as assigned.
8. Supports mission, vision and direction of the Crossroads YMCA. Actively promotes all YMCA programs and activities and supports YMCA campaign initiatives. Be knowledgeable and supportive of the YMCA annual support campaign.
9. Follows YMCA policies, procedures, and emergency procedures and able to demonstrate them.
10. Performs other duties as assigned.
